PNC Erievue Capital Invests in YardNique

PNC Erievue Capital recently provided junior capital to Plexus Capital’s YardNique platform (the “Company”) to support add-on acquisitions and the Company’s continued growth.

About YardNique

YardNique began operations in 1997 when Brian DuMont, the Company’s founder and CEO, was a junior at North Carolina State University pursuing his horticulture science degree. Today, YardNique stands as one of the fastest growing landscape organizations in the nation, currently ranked 22nd by Lawn and Landscape magazine. Specializing in commercial landscape maintenance, design, and installation, the Company operates under its flagship brand YardNique as well as through various wholly owned landscape brands including Landmark, Naturescapes, Phoenix, NativeGreen, Creative Landscaping, Team Management of Pasco and ASI Landscape Management. Headquartered in Morrisville, North Carolina, the Company has established operations in North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Florida and Tennessee. YardNique employs over 2,500 grounds care, design, and horticulture professionals with its trademark orange trucks delivering quality landscape maintenance service for commercial properties, HOAs and multifamily communities across the southeastern United States. The Company’s Core Focus is to create an opportunity driven environment by building a great company that is surrounded by great people that create great results.
